WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair; warmer; southerly winds.

FAYETTE STREET.—The committee on streets met last night to consider the proposition from the Washington Southern Railway Company for double tracking Fayette street. The meeting was held in the Aldermen's chamber and was presided over by Mr. H. R. Burke, chairman. The other members of the committee present were Alderman Smoot and Councilman McCuen. City Engineer Dunn and a number of residents of Fayette street were also present. The railroad company, as has heretofore been stated, wants to lay a double track through the entire length of Fayette street. For this privilege the company offers to pave the entire street, leaving eight feet sidewalks and to fence in the tracks, leaving driveways of 13 feet on each side of the fence. A plan of the proposed work was shown and Mr. Burke explained the drawing. He said it was proposed by the committee to require the railroad to pave the street with vitrified brick; to erect gates at each of the corners and to sewer the street from Orinoco to Duke.

Mr. Wm. Rodgers said he would not consent to the proposition, nor submit to the railroad having the use of the street; he would not allow anyone to touch his pavement or his trees, and if the street was used as it is proposed it would damage his business; if the company wanted land for shifting cars it could buy all it required.

Mr. M. Greene said if the company wanted the use of the street let them buy the property along that street from the owner.

Mr. A. Cheshire opposed the proposition; he said he could now feel his house shake when trains passed by it on a single track, and wanted the tracks no nearer him than at present.

Mr. J. T. Nails asked that the property owners' interests be looked into by the committee whom he hoped would not allow the railroad to infringe on the rights of citizens.

Mr. Rodgers then presented a paper signed by about fifty citizens representing fully two thirds of the property owners on the street, protesting against the use of the street by the railroad. The protest set forth the use by the railroad of the street and neighborhood and the danger to the lives of the residents, who were already subjected to great annoyances by the railroad. The petition ended with a request that consent to use the street be withheld.

Mr. Rodgers said if the street had to be paved that the property owners would pay for the work much rather than let the railroad monopolize it.

Mr. Burke said he thought as one track was on the street already, but little more damage could be done by another and the street would certainly be greatly improved by the paving, &c.

Mr. Richards cited an instance to show that paving in front of property at considerable expense had not increased the value of the property one dollar.

General opposition to the plan was then expressed by the property owners, who said they would pave the street at their own expense rather than let the railroad pave it on such terms, and several said they would fight the railroad in the courts if it attempted to use the street with a double track.

Mr. J. A. Marshall favored the plan proposed by the railroad, but the others present said he did not live on the street and had been driven off by the railroad; they would leave too if they could so under as advantageous conditions as his.

It was stated that of all the property owners on the street only Messrs. Marshall, Lunt, Schuler, Jones and Fairfax favored the plan.

Mr. Smoot wanted to encourage the railroad and bring people here; because he could not get a double track in front of his company's property he was going to leave the city and go where he could get more accommodations for his business. He suggested that Mr. Rodgers get up a petition to council requiring the property owners to pave Fayette street and see how many persons would sign such a paper as that.

After more discussion Mr. Burke said he saw that the property owners were almost unanimous in their opposition to the plan, so further consideration would be useless.

The property owners then withdrew and the committee took up other matters.

It is understood that the committee will report to Council that, in view of the opposition to the petition, the right to double track Fayette street be denied the railroad company.

During the meeting the railroad company was severely criticised for not building a proper depot in this city.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Thompson presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A man arrested by Officer Smith for being drunk and asleep in the street, was fined $2.50 or given 30 days in the work house.

Robert Pinkerton, colored, arrested by Officer Atkinson for disorderly conduct, was $2.50.

Harrie Davis, colored, arrested by Officer Lyles for assault and carrying concealed weapons, was fined $25 or given 90 days on the chain gang.

Thomas Burdian and May Francis, arrested by Officer Lyles for fighting and indecent conduct, were fined $6 each.

Annie Gibson, colored, charged with keeping a dog without a license, was fined $1.

Charles Foley, jr., charged with stealing clothing from James Mayhugh, was released for his appearance when wanted.

A young man, arrested by Officer Lyles charged with defacing property in a bar room, was dismissed by Justice Stclair.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cool. Five prisoners and four lodgers were at the station house.

FIGHT.—Thomas Burdon and May Francis, both colored, caused some excitement in the neighborhood in which they live early last night by engaging in a fight, in which the man came out second-best. They had been keeping house together recently, but yesterday their relations became strained which ended in a fight. They were fined $6 each this morning, and should the amounts be not paid the man will do one of the new bills and chains and the woman be sent to the work house.

THE INFIRMARY.—Dr. R. M. Slaughter, of the medical staff of the Alexandria Infirmary, has submitted the following report:

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Oct. 4th, 1895.

To the Board of Managers of the Alexandria Infirmary.

Ladies: I have the honor to submit herewith a tabular statistical report of patients treated at the Infirmary during my term of service, from June 1st to September 30th, 1895. This term of service has been to me both pleasant and profitable, and I have been surprised to find how great are the capabilities of the institution for good medical and surgical work. Its appointments are excellent, and its internal management all that could be desired under existing circumstances. I can only speak in the highest terms of the present matron. In her you have, indeed, a treasure. Of the pupils nurses, too, a word of commendation should be spoken. I have observed with pleasure their ever earnest attention to duty.

The Infirmary has been a means of accomplishing much good in the past, and is capable of accomplishing greater good in the future. To reach, however, the full measure of its capabilities some changes in the regulations are, in my opinion, necessary. What these changes should be I do not now deem it expedient to suggest. Should it meet your approval the staff will suggest them later. Yours respectfully,

R. M. SLAUGHTER, M. D.

PERSONAL.—Mr. George H. Hayden leaves Sunday morning at 11:38 for Danville to represent Jackson Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., in the State council, which meets in that city Monday morning, October 21.

The family of Capt. C. E. Morse, U. S. army, sailed from New York the 16th instant on the Furst Bismarck for Genoa. They will spend the fall and winter in southern France and Italy.

Mr. George Salsbury continues extremely ill at his home in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Makel Triplett, who were married in Washington yesterday, are the guests of Mr. Rozier Brown, in West End, and were last night given a serenade by the West End band.

Miss Janie Smith and Mrs. Sutherland, of Danville, are at the Stafford for a few days, having recently returned from a visit to Europe.—Baltimore American.

Rev. Father R. L. Carne, who has been on a short visit to friends in this city, returned to Richmond to-day.

Maj. E. H. Janney and his daughter, who have been spending some months in Europe, returned home yesterday evening. Dr. H. P. Howard returned last night and the family of Prof. Crawford are on their way home and are expected in a few days.

Dr. F. C. Hodgkin, of Warrenton, and Miss Lois G. Bowman, of Charlottesville, were married in the latter city yesterday.

Mrs. Laurence Stabler, who has been seriously ill, is able to be out again.

GOSPEL MISSION.—The convention of the National Gospel Mission Union closed in Washington yesterday. In its report of the proceedings the Star says: One of the first evangelistic movements started directly under the auspices of the national union was a mission organized last spring in Alexandria, and Mr. R. E. Redding, the superintendent, was introduced to speak of his work. Mr. Redding is a central union mission convert of this city and well known in mission work.

Four years ago he was the driver of an ice wagon and a pretty hard drinking man. As a result of his bad habits his home was broken up, and he was rapidly going from bad to worse. One night he encountered the central union mission gospel wagon, and his "start upward" dated from that open-air service. Today he is a fine looking, earnest man and in an interesting manner he described the evangelistic work he has been trying to do in Alexandria.

THREW HIM OUT.—A young man while under the influence of liquor entered a barroom in the southwestern portion of the city yesterday and called for liquor. The proprietor refused to furnish it, telling him he would be customer he had enough aboard for one day. The young man became abusive and applied some vile epithets to the saloon keeper, when the latter assaulted him and threw him into the street. The young man before this adventure had entered a saloon in the same neighborhood and it is alleged stole a box of cigars. A warrant has been issued for his arrest, but the police so far have been unable to locate him.

A NINETY DAYS' SENTENCE.—Officer Lyles while on duty in the western part of the city last night saw a negro named Harrie Davis kick a man of his own color and pick up a rock with which to strike him. The officer, who was a short distance away, approached and put him under arrest. Upon being searched an old-fashioned "pepper-box" pistol, every chamber of which was loaded, was found on his person. This morning Davis was fined $25, or given 90 days on the chain gang. This individual has been giving the police trouble for some time.

CHARTERS.—Judge J. K. M. Norton has granted a charter to the National Loan and Endowment Company, of Washington. The capital stock is to be not more than $50,000. Mr. John T. Callahan is named as the Alexandria representative, and the officers are Henry C. Ferrell, president; Lewis W. Johnson, vice president; A. H. Terrell, secretary; C. K. Johnson, treasurer; and Samuel Ridley, assistant treasurer.

Judge Nicol has granted a charter to "The Fairfax Club," a social club of Fairfax. Mr. Joseph E. Willard is president.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION.—The Young People's Union of the Second Presbyterian Church met in the lecture room of the church, last night, and elected officers for the coming year as follows: President, Wm. H. Melchior; vice president, Wm. Campbell; secretary, Isaac B. Field; treasurer, A. H. Thomson; religious committee, O. M. White; membership committee, Miss J. Heistley; social committee, Miss J. Woodward; music committee, P. J. Dempsey.

OPERA HOUSE.—Bill Nye, while in London, recently, put up at a fire proof hotel whose cigars were likewise and whose rates were $5.00 per day, exclusive of board and lodging. He will tell of his funny experiences abroad at the "cyclone of mirth" next Wednesday evening. Among the many things he saw and did in this country is a brand new smile, which he will wear throughout the evening, weather permitting.

Dr. E. T. Robinson, State Medical Examiner for the Royal Arcanum, is in Richmond.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

POLITICAL.—The action of the city and county democratic committees on Wednesday night last in ordering another convention to nominate a candidate for the House of Delegates does not meet with the approval of at least one of the candidates, and his friends and the committees have been asked to meet again to-night to consider the matter. There is a difference of opinion among the members concerning the rights of the committees in ordering a new convention and possibly at the meeting to-night the whole subject will be reviewed. The wires between this city and Richmond have been kept hot since yesterday conveying messages to and from State Chairman Ellyson and it is said that some of the dispatches would be interesting reading. An effort was made to-day to get Mr. Ellyson to come to this city; but he had not arrived at 4 o'clock.

MEETINGS.—The State convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy will be held in this city next Tuesday. Mrs. E. H. O'Brien and Mrs. A. M. Davis have been appointed to represent Mary Custis Lee division of this city in the convention.

An interesting meeting of the Ann Lee Monument Association was held yesterday evening at the residence of the president, Mrs. L. W. Reid. Miss Stuart read a number of encouraging letters she had received from prominent people throughout the country. The association adopted a badge and made arrangements for a lecture to be delivered by Dr. Bedford Brown next month.

A SUSPICIOUS CHARACTER.—Robert Pinkerton, colored, was seen last night by residents of the western portion of the city in an alley peering over fences and attempting to climb them. Officer Atkinson put in his appearance and arrested him as a suspicious character. He resisted the officer and refused to accompany him until he was threatened with a "black jack." This morning he could give no satisfactory account of his actions in the alley and was fined $2.50 for disorderly conduct.

A GAME OF SEVEN-UP.—A clever cartoonist of this city has caricatured the recent convention in this city in an apt manner. Messrs. Barley, Benheim, May and Lipscomb are represented as seated at a table engaged in a game of seven-up. Barley has examined his "hand" and exclaimed, "I beg." Bendheim replies, "I won't give; he's five times; besides, I'm four myself." May exclaims, "Run 'em," and Lipscomb, "Ditto."

THE RACES.—The races at St. Asaph to-day resulted as follows:

First race, ¼ mile—Salisbury won, Alva second, Luke Richards third. Time 1:21.

Second race, 4 furlongs—Ellsworth won, Goldspec second, Ceremony third. Time 57.

Third race, ¼ mile—King Paul won, Contest second, Adjour third. Time 1:32.

DEEDS RECORDED.—The deed from J. M. Johnson, special commissioner, to L. A. Downey for the sale of a lot on the north side of Duke street, between Patrick and Henry, was recorded in the clerk's office to-day, as was also a deed from C. F. Z. Caracristi to the Pan American Investment Company of his interest in certain properties in Colombia, South America.
